

Privacy Statement

Your privacy is very important to us. Accordingly, we have developed this policy in order for you to understand how we collect, use, communicate and disclose and make use of personal information. The following outlines our privacy policy.

HopeSource will not collect any indentifying information about you such as name, social security numbers, etc., unless it is provided to us in the course of requesting information regarding services, donations, or employment. In any case where your personal information may be collected, HopeSource will keep that information private; it will only be used to provide the requested information, service, etc, and will not be sold or distributed without express consent from you.

HopeSource may perform research on our users' demographics, interests, and behavior based on the information provided to us when making a request for services. We do this to better understand and serve our users. This research is compiled and analyzed on an aggregated basis to prevent identification of personal information relating to any one individual. HopeSource may share this aggregated data with our business partners.

We will protect personal information by reasonable security safeguards against loss or theft, as well as unauthorized access, disclosure, copying, use or modification.
